

April Fool's Day Special

KIDS NEWSLETTER

FUN FACTS

- 1.) In Scotland, April Fool's Day is a two-day event.
- 2.) In Portugal they celebrate by throwing flour at each other.
- 3.) In England they use other words for fool such as "nobby" or "gobby".

JOKE

Q: When do gorillas
prank each other?
A: Ape-ril Fools Day!

JOKE

Q: Which monster is the biggest prankster?
A: Prank-enstien!

JOKE

Q: When do monkeys
fall from the sky?
A: During Ape-ril Rain!

TONGUE TWISTER

Ten tiny tricks Tricky Tilly tried totally tricked Tim!

HISTORIC PRANK

One of the most historic pranks happened in 1957.
BBC news reported that Swiss farmers were experiencing a record spaghetti crop.
It broadcast fake footage of people pretending to harvest noodles from trees.

RIDDLE

Q: Why is everyone
tired in April?
A: From a long March!

RIDDLE

Q: I am in the middle of May & March...
A: The letter "R"

RIDDLE

Q: What do you call a pranking dino?
A: A Trick-o-saurus!

PLAYGROUND RHYME

If someone says, "Look! A unicorn's loose!"
Or, "There's a giraffe in the school on the loose!"
They might offer a pony or a pancake buffet—
Just giggle and shout...
It's APRIL FOOLS' DAY!